

Better Together Convenings

Between March and April 2024, Stamford Cradle to Career held a series of events bringing together families, youth, and community partners with the goal of sharing resources and building connections to work better together.

Family Convening

On March 14th, over 50 families joined Stamford Cradle to Career at the Boys & Girls Club of Stamford to hear speakers share information on how to advocate for: special education, housing rights, policy change, and their child. This multi-lingual event was our 3rd convening for families and our highest turnout to date.

56

Caregivers attended the event

4

Keynote speakers shared actionable information

9

SC2C Parent Ambassadors emceed the evening

Teen Fair

On April 5th, 191 teens from over 20 different schools in grades 8-12 joined us at the Boys & Girls Club of Stamford. The teens had access to over 30 city organizations where they could learn more about scholarships, colleges, internship opportunities and other resources available to youth in Stamford.

191

Students attended the Teen Fair

81%

Of students surveyed found the event useful

72%

Of students surveyed would recommend it to their friends

Community Convening

On April 9th, 100 attendees from over 40 local organizations met in the communal hall at First Presbyterian Church to hear key note speaker Richard Harwood talk about the importance of using common goals to reduce community divisions. Participants later broke out to learn more about policy and advocacy, Full Service Community Schools, and a workshop for executives by Richard Harwood.

100

Community partners attended

40

Different community organizations represented

87%

Of participants surveyed felt more informed after

Read More Here